NEW MANAGEMENT

Cheranda “Cherri” Parks-Taylor has been named the new manager of the Harrisburg Broad Street Market. Parks-Taylor, who currently works with the Pennsylvania Chamber of Business and Industry, noted she’s excited to help grow the Market and strengthen its role in the community. Board members say Parks-Taylor’s extensive experience in operations and management makes her a strong fit to lead the historic market forward.

WEIGHTED REVIEW

U.S. Senator John Fetterman penned a column in the New York Times this week about his positive experience taking the GLP-1 drug Mounjaro, which was originally approved by the FDA to treat type 2 diabetes. This comes after the Trump Administration reversed former President Biden’s decision to have Medicare cover the cost of the drug. Fetterman noted that he was not paid for his endorsement of the drug but wants others to be informed. He stated the drug helped him with his heart health post-stroke while improving his overall health.

U-TURN

President Donald Trump announced a 90-day pause on most reciprocal tariffs, lowering rates for many countries but raising China's to 125%. The decision comes after China's own retaliatory tariffs and ongoing tensions between the two nations. While tariffs on Mexico and Canada remain in place for certain sectors, Wall Street responded positively to the broader tariff rollback, with major stock indexes seeing their best day in years. Trump framed the move as strategic flexibility, with administration officials saying the pause is meant to encourage new trade negotiations.

PA SUCCESS STORY

The Hershey Company has announced that the filming of a major motion picture about Milton and Catherine Hershey begins next month. Titled “HERSHEY,” it will star Finn Wittrock (American Horror Story) as Milton and Alexandra Daddario (White Lotus) as Catherine. The story will highlight the chocolate empire’s early days and its enduring cultural impact. Mark Waters (Mean Girls, Freaky Friday) will direct, with production taking place across Pennsylvania. Slated for a 2026 release to honor America's 250th anniversary, this sweet cinematic tale promises a fresh look at the legendary story of one of PA's most famous men.

GREEN JACKET

Today marks the start of the Masters (IYKYK), which lasts through Sunday. For many, it marks the start of spring and when amateur golfers begin to start looking at tee times for the weekend (on company time.) Who will don the green jacket on Sunday? And where else can you get a $1.50 pimento cheese sandwich?
