LIBERAL WIN EH

Prime Minister Mark Carney's Liberal Party has won Canada's federal election, according to a projection by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. The victory is considered a dramatic turnaround for the Liberal party's fortunes, fueled by a surge in Canadian nationalism after U.S. President Donald Trump's attacks on Canada's economy and sovereignty. While it remains unclear if the Liberals secured an outright majority, they are expected to win more seats than the Conservative Party. Carney's win follows the resignation of Justin Trudeau and a heated campaign shaped by rising living costs and U.S. political tensions.

CHAMPIONS

The Super Bowl Championship Philadelphia Eagles visited the White House yesterday to celebrate their dismantling of the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl LIX. This is the Eagles' first trip to the White House after not visiting in 2018. Jalen Hurts, AJ Brown, and Devonta Smith were all absent from the visit. PA Treasurer Stacy Garrity and Attorney General Dave Sunday were among the crowd celebrating the Eagles' victory.

GAME OF POPES

On Monday, Catholic Cardinals selected May 7 for the conclave that will choose Pope Francis's successor, purposely shifting the secret ballot back two days. The pause is less about procrastination than conversation: senior clerics want extra time to size up one another and rally around a name before they're sealed inside the Sistine Chapel.

The event included a fashion show for the unwanted and abandoned puppies from the shelter. The funds collected from Mutt Gala support the Humane Society's efforts to care for thousands of pets each year.
