The State House will convene at 12PM.

SAYING THANKS

Over the weekend, Pennsylvania first responders were recognized on first responders' day. Police officers, EMS, fire, and public health personnel are honored on September 27th thanks to legislation signed in 2021. The bill was authored by State Senator Kristin Phillips-Hill, initially honoring veterans, and was expanded in the House through an amendment from State Representative Dave Maloney to also recognize first responders. Thanks to all our first responders for all that you do to support this Commonwealth!

DROP-OUT

Current New York City Mayor, Eric Adams, announced yesterday that he dropped out of the race for reelection by suspending his campaign. Several weeks ago, speculation arose around Adams dropping out of the race to help boost Andrew Cuomo's chances in November. Since Adams waited until now, his name will still appear on the ballot. Adams was elected as mayor in 2021 as a Democrat but decided to run as an Independent this cycle. He was indicted on federal charges in 2024 for bribery and campaign finance violations.

PENN STATE PAIR WINS $300K

What started as a raffle turning into a life-changing moment for two Penn State students during ESPN's College GameDay. William, a raffle winner, won the chance but handed the ball to Carson Albright of Hanover, Pennsylvania, who drilled a 33-yard kick. Pat

McAfee, a former NFL kicker, sweetened the deal from $100K to $300K when the pair agreed to split it, letting both walk away with a prize of $150K.

BAD BUNNY BANGERS

Last night, during Sunday Night Football's game between the Dallas Cowboys and the Green Bay Packers, the NFL announced Bad Bunny would be performing for this year's Superbowl halftime show. Bad Bunny has been at the top of the charts since 2016 and has won numerous Grammy Awards.

STORM'S A COMING

Tropical Storm Imelda is projected to move across the U.S. southeast coastline this week. Coastal Georgia and the Carolinas are expecting storm surge and coastal from the storm. North Carolina and South Carolina have declared states of emergency. It is projected to go back out to sea after moving through Virginia, missing Pennsylvania entirely.
