PA OLYMPIANS

Summer Britcher, a three-time Olympian from York County, is competing in the women's single luge. Britcher, a Susquehannock High School graduate, competed yesterday in runs one and two, placing 12th overall. She now moves on to runs three and four today at 11:00am. Additionally, women's hockey goaltender Ava McNaughton made her Olympic debut yesterday against Switzerland. Best of luck to Britcher, McNaughton, and all PA raised U.S athletes!

ENDORSED

The PA Democratic Party met in Harrisburg this past weekend for the 2026 winter state committee meeting. There, the reelection campaign for Governor Josh Shapiro and Lieutenant Governor Austin Davis was officially endorsed by the PA Democratic Party. The PA Democratic Party Chair Eugene DePasquale stated, "From Day One, Governor Shapiro and Lieutenant Governor Davis have delivered real results for Pennsylvanians in every corner of the Commonwealth on the issues that matter most."

PLEAD THE 5TH

Ghislaine Maxwell was called to testify before the House Oversight Committee on Monday regarding her involvement with Jeffery Epstein. She "answered no questions and provided no information," according to Congressman Robert Garcia (D – CA). It was made clear by Maxwell's lawyers that she would not make any statements until she was granted clemency by President Donald Trump. Maxwell is currently serving a 20-year prison sentence for helping recruit underage girls for Epstein.

ALL GOOD? IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Governor Josh Shapiro finds himself in the middle of a legal battle after neighbors sued him over a property line dispute. The lawsuit comes after the Governor's family started working on an 8-foot security fence that neighbors say crosses the property line. According to the lawsuit, there have been ongoing talks between the two families over this particular section of property. The neighbors call Shapiro's actions an outrageous abuse of power, while the Governor claims this is all a political stunt.

iSPACE

Four astronauts, part of Crew-12, will be taking a 10-day trip around the moon. However, their trip is to be a historical moment for modernization, as they will be the first crew allowed to take their smartphones into space. In addition to gathering scientific information, we will now also be expecting several Snapchat stories from these astronauts.
