TAKE A DRIVE

A new driving trail in Pennsylvania is 125 miles of scenery and Midstate history. The trail follows the Juniata River and goes through six Pennsylvania counties. Drivers can observe parks, riversides, and walking trails as well as great engineering pieces from PA history, including the Pennsylvania Mainline Canal system. If you are interested in seeing Pennsylvania's history and nature, the Juniata River Canal Driving Trail might be just your speed.

ARRESTED

The former Prince Andrew Mountbatten-Windsor, who was stripped of his titles due to his link to Jeffrey Epstein, was arrested today on the charge of misconduct in public office. This is the first time that a brother of a King was arrested in modern times. The police said that there would be no special treatment for him. In a statement, King Charles III said, "the law must take its course".

SHAMROCK SHAKE RETURNS

One of the most wonderful times of the year is among us, the season of McDonald's Shamrock Shakes. McDonald's officially announced the return of the minty sweet treat, which is now temporarily back on the menu. The Shamrock Shake and the Shamrock McFlurry will be available at participating McDonald's for a limited time in celebration of St. Patty's Day. For those interested, the color is achieved by using Yellow 5 (Tartrazine) and Blue 1 (Brilliant Blue) dyes...

AVALANCHE

Tragedy struck in California when an avalanche killed eight skiers in the Sierra Nevada mountains. Rescuers located and saved six survivors and are still looking for one remaining member of the group. About 50 professionals were dispatched as part of the rescue effort. This will go down as the single most deadly avalanche in U.S. history.
