GEOTRAIL

The hunt is on for America 250 geocaches. The Pennsylvania State Park system will be running a GeoTrail through March 2028 hiding 25 geocaches that are tied directly to the Revolutionary War. Following hints and searching for caches is a great way to learn more about history and get some fresh air. Hints can be found here and those who find all 25 geocaches will receive a coin to commemorate their experience.

AUCTION

The April Commonwealth Vehicle Auction will officially kick off tomorrow. The auction, hosted by the PA Department of General Services' Bureau of Vehicle Management, is set to have about 300 vehicles available. The event begins at 10:00AM at Manheim Keystone Pennsylvania in Grantville. Those interested in attending still have time to do an in-person preview and registration today, but same day registration will not be accepted.

GIRL POWER

Eagles fan and Astronaut, Christina Koch, along with the three other astronauts splashed down off the coast of San Diego Friday night. At 8:07PM ET, the first woman to orbit the moon and the people who traveled the farthest in space in human history returned. She was one of the four astronauts to return on NASA's Artemis II landing. One small step for man, one giant leap for womankind...

AUTOMATIC REGISTRATION

The U.S. military draft will begin automatically registering eligible men. The change in registration process is intended to save money compared to the previous self-registration process. The process will begin in December of this year. Eligible men will be registered into the Selective Service System within 30 days of their 18th birthday.

GREEN JACKET

Yesterday, Rory McIlroy won The Masters and officially earned his second straight green jacket. The achievement comes after waiting 17 years to earn his first green jacket. He now joins Nicklaus, Faldo, and Woods in his two-time success. McIlroy announced he has no plans of stopping.
