CEASEFIRE

The U.S. and Iran have agreed to a temporary end to the war. Both countries have agreed on a two-week ceasefire with Iran agreeing to open the Strait of Hormuz for these two weeks. The ceasefire was brokered by Pakistan just a few hours before Trump's "deadline" and his previous threat of a "whole civilization will die tonight". Talks will continue in Islamabad beginning on Friday.

TAX

It isn't too late to get help with taxes. With the April 15th deadline fast approaching, the PA Department of Revenue is extending its customer service hours to provide assistance to Pennsylvanians. Taxpayers are encouraged to call the help line at 717-787-8201 or visit the online customer service center to get answers to any tax questions they may have.

PLATES

PennDOT and the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission have announced a new license plate available for purchase. The Preserve Our Heritage plate features the Liberty Bell and the Pennsylvania Bank Barn. The plates will cost $64 with $23 going directly to support the Commission.

INCREASES

Parking costs in Harrisburg are increasing once again. Although the hourly rate remains steadfast at $4.00 an hour, the increase comes from the transaction fee. The fee was previously set for 35 cents, however, it has now been raised to 99 cents. This cost comes to patrons looking to park on the street and in garages, which is $12 for 2 hours in a garage, costing more than garages in NYC. The new transaction fees are meant to recoup fees paid to banks from the Park Mobile App.
