DROPOUT

The Democratic debate for the PA 3rd Congressional District's primary was held yesterday. However, the debate was held without Ala Stanford. Stanford dropped out of the debate only hours before it was set to begin. She stated that her campaign disagreed with the radio station's format. Additionally, she accused her opponents of misogynistic attacks. WHY? maintains that it was unaware Stanford would drop out if specific changes were not made. The debate went on with only State Senator Sharif Street and State Representative Chris Rabb.

REVERSAL

Harrisburg Area Community College's (HACC) previous announcement that they would have several sports cutbacks has now been reversed. The decision comes after several petitions from both men's and women's sporting programs that would have been cut. Funds were also identified by HACC to help continue these programs. Therefore, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer and women's volleyball will continue into the 2026-27 school year.

CLEAR-OUT

York City is launching an effort to close and clean homeless encampments in the area. The plan is being described as a compassionate clear-out. York Mayor Sandie Walker said that the plan is a coordinated and respectful process focused on ensuring public safety. The encampments are set to be closed by June 2 and will be monitored to avoid re-encampment.

KIDNAPPED?

A Harrisburg school board member was charged with three felonies yesterday morning, including kidnapping. The incident involved the board member taking a 4-month-old baby from its home in Middletown, to Harrisburg without the parents' permission. The board member claims that there are many false accusations being made about the incident.

KNOCK KNOCK

The Philadelphia Flyers have defeated the Pittsburgh Penguins in the battle of Pennsylvania. In a series that needed 6 games, the last game needed extra time as well. Cam York scored the overtime winner (and game winner), after a scoreless game going into extra minutes. The Flyers advance to face the Carolina Hurricanes in Round 2. Now it's up to the Pirates to break Pittsburgh's playoff win drought....
