GOTV

Today is Primary Election Day! Polls are open from 7am - 8pm to cast your vote. The results from today's election will be available here after 8pm today. After today, all eyes will be on the General Election to be held November 3rd. If you don't already know where to vote in person, you can find it by clicking here. Anyone with an uncompleted mail in ballot can surrender it and vote in person at their precinct. Happy voting!

IMPORTANT APPOINTMENT

Former State Representative and current Luzerne County Common Pleas Judge Tarah Toohil has been appointed to serve as a member of the Joint State Government Commission's Advisory Committee on Domestic Relations Law. This important commission reviews and helps to shape family law policies throughout the Commonwealth. Toohill called it "an honor" to serve in this role, which makes legal recommendations on divorce and child custody.

DUDE WHERE'S MY PLANE?

The Transportation Security Administration (TSA) recently updated its passenger screening guidance, clarifying that passengers may now bring medical marijuana in both checked and carry-on luggage. The new guidance came after President Donald Trump signed an executive order officially reclassifying medical marijuana as a schedule III drug. The TSA website does state however that the final decision rests with onsite TSA officers to determine what items will be allowed through screenings. Maybe leave the crème brûlée torch at home.

OUTBREAK UPDATE

A total of 30 Pennsylvanians have been diagnosed with measles this year after two cases in Lebanon County were announced yesterday. Thus far, individuals in Lebanon, Lancaster, Berks, Chester, and Montgomery counties have contracted the disease. The PA Department of Health responded to the increase in cases by tracing contact and advising infected individuals.

QUEUE UP NELLY

Temperatures reach the hottest of the year this week, challenging record highs set in the 1960s for early summer temperatures. As if the afternoon heat wasn't enough, our beloved Central Pennsylvania will also be facing record warm lows in the mornings. As of today, our "bone chilling" 68 degree morning broke the record of 67 degrees set in 2017. Tomorrow morning, even better... a whopping 70 degrees! Now that's what we call a fair-weathered friend!
