THE CHANCE IS GONE

Today is the last day for "games of skill" to be removed in the commonwealth following the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's ruling declaring them to be illegal slot machines. The court gave a 120-grace period to allow the state legislature time to determine the future of the gambling devices. The Pennsylvania State Police will now begin enforcement on any remaining machines still in establishments.

OCTOBER SURPRISE?

Early Monday morning, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security conducted a raid on the Washington D.C. home of Congresswoman Ilhan Omar (D-Minnesota). Verifiable details on the purpose of the raid have yet to be given. In response, Democrat lawmakers have rebuked the raid being conducted this close to the November midterm election. Congresswoman Omar stated that she "will not be silenced" and President Trump has claimed that he has had nothing to do with the raid.

HORSING AROUND

The Pennsylvania National Horse Show is celebrating its 80th anniversary in Harrisburg, bringing more than 1,000 horses and riders from across the country to compete in hunter, jumper and equitation events. The show runs October 8 through 18 at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex, continuing a tradition that began in 1946. Most days offer free general admission, while select evening competitions will require tickets.

HERSHEY HITS HOLLYWOOD

The Hershey Story Museum will be opening a new exhibit, "From Story to Screen: The Making of the HERSHEY Movie," on November 6. Located in the William E. Dearden Gallery, the exhibit will feature interactive activities, movie clips, and exclusive interviews with the cast and crew. Visitors can act out scenes on a recreated movie set and discover how filmmakers create sound effects. Featured items include reproductions of original Hershey's packaging, a replica of Milton Hershey's caramel sales cart, and a hair comb worn by Alexandria Daddario, who portrays Catherine Hershey. The exhibit will be open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., ahead of the movie's theatrical release on November 24.

A PRESIDENTIAL PUSH

Former President Barack Obama has again endorsed Governor Josh Shapiro for reelection, giving the Democratic governor a high-profile boost in his campaign. Obama praised Shapiro's leadership and his willingness to stand up to President Donald Trump. The endorsement comes as Shapiro prepares to face Republican state Treasurer Stacy Garrity in the November 3, 2026, election. Obama and Shapiro have a political relationship dating back to Shapiro's support of Obama's 2008 presidential campaign. Obama's endorsement is part of a broader effort to support Democratic candidates in competitive races ahead of the November midterm elections.

Happy Birthday

- Carla Sands, Former U.S. Ambassador to Denmark
- Adam Pankake, Chief of Staff, Office of Senator Kim Ward
- Estelle Richman, Former Secretary, PA Department of Public Welfare
